What we have been doing this week

This week we have been making boats and rafts out of junk material. We have tested our models to see if they will float and talked about the different materials and how they react to water. We have written menus for our café in the role play area. We have also been working with play dough to roll out sausages and cut into ten small pieces using scissors. Practising our snipping skills has been lots of fun. We have been drawing pictures of ourselves and writing our name.
